The Road Warrior
A Motorcycle Run Benefit
August 11, 2018
to raise funds for
The Road Warrior Sculpture
to honor WWII Veterans

Description: The Oldham County History Center is raising funds for The Road Warrior Sculpture: this sculpture depicts WWII Marine Veteran Dr. E. Bruce Heilman on his Harley Davidson motorcycle.

In 2013, at age 86, Bruce Heilman began riding his Marine issue Harley Davidson motorcycle across the United States to raise awareness of the sacrifices of WWII Veterans and Gold Star families. Today, at age 91, and as National Spokesperson for the Greatest Generation Foundation, Bruce still travels across the United States and around the world to bring attention to veterans and their sacrifices for democracy.

The Road Warrior Sculpture, created by Wyatt Gragg and depicts Bruce on his Harley. The interactive sculpture invites participants to “hop on” and take a ride with Bruce!
