Dear Aunt

I received your nice basket of things this morning the can of peaches and the milk. I got my things that you sent me in the box about two hours after Mr. Mahan left and the letter to see you have got orders to leave here too tomorrow morning but I don't now where we will go get some say to camp will eat and some to say we will go below for my part I don't care

don't I would try and come up but I would not have time to see you all & tell Joe and John they must not get Mr. Smith except. He was very much pleased with the things you all sent him.
you said in your letter that you asked Uncle Jim to tell me
he said that last time answering he told him that I think he is getting old enough to quit work and make them boys do the work. Give my best respects to all of my friends that inquire after me particularly the Mrs. Daily.

don't answer this until I write to you again but if I never have the chance to write again I hope that I will meet you all in heaven & where there will be no more parting.

your affectionate friend and most Obedient Nephew
